VAHANA: Vehicles of the Gods

STUTI GUPTA

The book is a collection of fifteen stories – some telling us how gods got their vahana – or vehicles; others narrating their fun and adventures together. These are some interesting and hilarious stories about Shiva, Vishnu, Brahma, Lakshmi, Durga, Ganesha, Kartikeya, Indra, among others, and their adorable vahanas.

Have you ever wondered why Shiv ji's mount – Nandi, the bull – sits opposite him in all the temples? He never lets Mahadev out of his sight.

Goddess Lakshmi is organizing a race for all the birds and animals in the forest. Wonder why? Because she wants to choose her vahana, her mount.

You will find in this book:

- Fifteen entertaining stories about gods and their mounts
- The perfect book to introduce Hindu gods and goddesses to children
- Beautiful illustrations with all stories
- Puzzles and coloring pages for fun
- Great for parent-child bonding

Stuti Gupta has earlier authored Magical Mythology and introduced 101 Best Indian Fables and Popular Indian Fairy Tales. She loves to bring Indian stories to children in an informative and enjoyable way. Equipped with an M.Phil degree in literature and more than fifteen years of experience in the publishing industry, she loves her role as a storyteller.
